Mr. Redding is meeting with encouragement, a large number of the old members having given him their names for the reorganization. It is a good order and every old member should be willing to have the lodge started again, especially as it will be at very small cost.

Negro Day On Interurban.

Sunday was negro day on the Interurban, and our white citizens had no chance at all to ride. There was a negro camp-meeting on at Hutchison. The Interurban had an extra car here to haul them out and it was packed to the guards. The regular three o'clock car then came in and almost before it stopped the negroes were packed in it as thick as sardines in a box in both white and colored compartments. There were several white ladies present who wanted to go to Lexington and other points up the road, besides quite a number who desired to attend a burial at the cemetery and quite a crowd who wanted to go to the ball game—all of these people were turned down for the negro by the Interurban people. A nice state of affairs, you must not ride in the negro compartment, for we have had the conductors to ask us out, no matter how crowded the white compartments, but Mr. Negro can use all of the white compartment and the whites are forced to remain at home. If this is the way we are to be treated by the Interurban people, we are in favor of our citizens petitioning Superintendent Anderson, of the L. & N., to run a coach every hour from our city to Lexington, and let every white person travel by that route and let the blacks have full sway on the Interurban. By a little agitation we can get the L. & N. people to put a train on in opposition to the Interurban, and it should be done when it comes to giving the blacks preference over the whites, and at that when the law surely gives the whites as much privilege as it does the negroes.

Dies on Her Birthday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Woodford, the widow of the late John Woodford, died at an early hour yesterday morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Capt. E. F. Spears, on High Street, after a protracted illness. It was the morning of her 83rd birthday that this most excellent lady passed away. She was one of our oldest and highly respected citizens, and had lived to see her sons grow to be honorable and successful business men and her daughters married to honorable men. She could justly be proud of the family she had raised, and after a life of usefulness and of the true mother devotion to her children, was ready and patiently waiting for the last eternal sleep.

Mrs. Woodford was a woman of strong character, and was much loved and appreciated by those who knew her best. Her death is mourned by a large circle of friends. It is another instance where a good and noble woman has gone from our midst to receive her just reward. She is survived by six children, Mr. Buckner Woodford, Mrs. E. F. Spears, Mr. John F. Woodford (Mt. Sterling), Mr. Catesby Woodford, Mr. Henry Woodford (Mt. Sterling), and Mrs. W. L. Yerkes.

Funeral services will take place to-morrow (Wednesday) morning, at 10:30, from the residence of Capt. E. F. Spears, conducted by Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford. The pall-bearers will be her grandsons.

New Candidates.

We announce in this issue Mr. T. H. Tarr for Magistrate in the Centerville precinct. Mr. Tarr is a fine business man and well qualified to fill this most important office.

SAUL J. F. HOWELL is also announced for re-election in Clintonville precinct. He has made an efficient officer and has shown the people that he is qualified. He is a popular gentleman and will be hard to beat if any opposition should come out against him.

Mr. Sidney G. Ardery is announced in this issue as a candidate for magistrate of the Centerville precinct. Mr. Ardery is one of our most substantial farmers and if elected would fill the office with credit to himself and to Bourbon county.

Caused By Reckless Driving.

On Saturday afternoon, Ben Brooks, colored, who works for Mr. Sam Clay, was bringing to town in a buggy Sarah Craig and Dovie Craig, both colored, and when reaching East Paris, Brooks began to unmercifully lay whip to his horse. The horse would not stand for it and ran away, smashing the buggy to pieces and throwing the occupants with great force to the pike. They were hauled to Dr. Wm. Kenney's office in a wagon and their injuries dressed by Drs. Fithian and Dudley. Brooks received a badly bruised and cut head; Sarah had her shoulder sprained and head cut, and Dovie a fractured collar bone and foot cut. It is said that reckless driving by Brooks caused the accident.

His Third Trip.

Dan Peed, of this city, left yesterday for the World's Fair to inspect his tobacco display. This is Mr. Peed's third trip to the Fair, having on first visit spent three weeks there in arranging his display, which has attracted as much attention as anything at the Fair. The newspapers have from time to time given lengthy and complimentary notices of it. It is said to be beyond doubt the finest collection of tobacco ever made in the United States. Our townsman is entitled to all the credit for it, for single handed and with great cost to himself, he selected and bought the tobacco on exhibition, which is a big advertisement for Bourbon county.

Manilla Pepper.

In A. J. Winters' show window there is what looks like a beautiful plant, but it is Manilla pepper grown by Mr. A. Barnett, of this city. The pods are at first yellow, then purple, then light red and a dark red when ripe. The different colors of the pods makes it quite a pretty plant, and it is said to be quite interesting to watch their changing color. Mr. Barnett says they make the very best of pepper.

Fine Farm Sold.

On yesterday, Auctioneer A. T. Forsyth sold at Court House door, the fine farm of the late G. G. White, near town, containing 547.63 acres, to Mr. J. T. Hinton for $91.75 per acre.

Good News.

We all rejoice to know that Rev. J. L. Clarke comes back to the Paris Methodist church for another year. This will be his fourth year and we will regret when it comes to an end, for then he must go to another point.

The Regulars Invincible.

The game of ball Sunday afternoon between the Paris Regulars and the Lexington Shamrocks resulted in a victory for Paris by a score of 16 to 1. The Regulars at this time seem to be invincible, having won six straight games. They only made two errors Sunday and three-baggers, two-baggers and singles were so numerous that spectators lost interest in the game before it ended. The Regulars simply outclass any team in Central Kentucky.

BLUES VS. FRANKFORT.

The Paris Blues won a game from Frankfort, Sunday afternoon, at the latter city by a score of 18 to 4.

The Regulars have changed hands and in the future will be under the management of Desha Lucas, the present manager of the Paris Blues, Manager Thomas having resigned. Nine picked men from these two teams will be a team hard to down.

Card of Thanks.
